

Eliza F. Greenberg, Commissioner
Commission on Affairs of the Elderly

Thomas M. Menino, Mayor

John M. Auerbach, Executive Director
Boston Public Health Commission

The City of Boston

Commission on Affairs of the Elderly,
REACH Boston Elders 2010 Program

&

Phillip I. Wizwer, MS, FASCP, RPh.

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences, Boston

Presents a

Pharmacy Education Program for Seniors

Program will be presented to the REACH Coalition in three sessions. First two sessions are scheduled at REACH Coalition meetings at the William J. Devine Golf Course Function Hall, 1 Circuit Drive, Dorchester, MA 02121, 12 noon -2:30 p.m.:

Session 1: Thursday, January 26, 2005 -How Our Bodies Change and How They Are Affected by Medications • Communicating With Your Pharmacist

Session 2: Thursday, March 23, 2005 (tentative) - Lecture on Over-the-Counter Medications and Herbal Remedies.

Session 3: Date and Place to be Announced -Brown Bag Analysis: Seniors bring all their current medications (prescription and over-the-counter) for a one-on-one with pharmacy students under the supervision of pharmacy professor.

For more information please contact Michael McColgan, Health & Fitness Advocate, Commission on Affairs of the Elderly at 617-635-4168 or at Michael.mccolgan@cityofboston.gov .