

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
AIDS Action Committee of Massachusetts, Inc. (Subcontract: LHI) 294 Washington Street, 5th Floor Boston, MA 02108 Ph. (617) 437-6200 Fax (617) 437-1394	South End/ Back Bay	Men who have sex with men, and who have multiple risk factors	African American /Latino MSM.	Using the CDC approved Community PROMISE curriculum as well as Comprehensive Risk Counseling and Health Navigation models, AAC collaborates with the Latin American Health Institute (LHI) to provide Progreso (Community PROMISE) and Sex Life Coaching (Comprehensive Risk Counseling Services and Health Navigation) prevention programs including Individual (ILI) and Group Level Interventions (GLI), Health Communication/Public Information (Role Model Stories) and limited Mobile Outreach to African American, Latino and Caucasian MSM with multiple risk factors for HIV/AIDS, viral hepatitis and STI infection.	$145,788
ABCD Health Services, Inc. 178 Tremont Street Boston, MA 02111 Ph. (617) 348-6260 Fax (617) 357-6810	South End, Dorchester, Roxbury, Mattapan	Soon to be and recently released incarcerated women with multiple risk factors.	Black/African American and Latina women.	Using the Project START curriculum, ABCD Health Services provides Group and Individual Intervention services to pre and post-release incarcerated women, particularly Black/African American and Latina women with multiple risk factors. Agency is subcontracting with DALLSS Inc. who will deliver risk reduction groups inside the Suffolk House of Correction and McGrath House.	$98,558

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
Boston Living Center, Inc. 29 Stanhope Street Boston, MA 02116 Ph.: (617) 236-1012 Fax: (617) 236-0334	Metro Boston	HIV positive individuals, with particular emphasis on women, men who have sex with men, monolingual Spanish speakers and substance abusers/those in recovery.	People living with AIDS who are residents of Boston who are also clients of the Boston Living Center.	Boston Living Center will provide four Group Level Intervention cycles of the CDC approved Healthy Relationships curriculum to specified target populations: one cycle for MSM, one for women at high risk, one for monolingual Spanish speakers and one for substance abusers and those in recovery at Victory Programs.	$30,000
Boston Medical Center SPARK Center (Subcontract: CCHER) 255 River Street Mattapan, MA 02126 Ph. (617) 534-2050 Fax: (617) 534-2057	Metro Boston	Haitian men and women with multiple risk factors.	Haitians in late adolescence or early/late adulthood.	Boston Medical Center acts as fiscal conduit for CCHER as it uses the CDC approved Project SMART curriculum, based on Social Cognitive Theory, the Health Belief Model and the Theory of Reasoned Action, to provide Group and Individual Level Intervention service to Haitian individuals at high risk and residing in the Dorchester, Hyde Park, Roxbury and Mattapan neighborhoods.	$75,523

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
Codman Square Health Center 637 Washington Street Dorchester, MA 02124 Ph.: (617) 825-9660 Fax: (617) 825-0328	Dorchester, Mattapan, Roxbury	Persons of color from communities disproportionately impacted by HIV/AIDS, STI and viral hepatitis.	Resident immigrant and refugee communities, MSM of Color, sex workers, IDUs and their partners and those already infected.	Partnership between Codman Square, Dorchester House and DotWell proposing a new “Your Sexual Health and Wellness” program utilizing the CDC approved VOICES/VOCES curriculum to provide Mobile Outreach and Health Communication/Public Information Intervention services to persons in the Dorchester, Roxbury and Mattapan neighborhoods of Boston, particularly those from racial and ethnic groups disproportionately impacted by, and with multiple risk factors for HIV/AIDS, STI and viral hepatitis infection including African American MSM, youth at risk, persons already infected, immigrants and refugees. Program contains a positive prevention component which built upon the Risk Reduction and Safer Sex educational frameworks.	$82,663
DEAF, Inc. 215 Brighton Avenue Allston, MA 02134 Ph.: (617) 254-4041 Fax: (617) 254-7091	Allston	Deaf and hard of hearing women, men (including MSM), immigrants, substance users.	Resident immigrant and refugee communities, communities of color, injection drug users, women.	DEAF Inc. uses an internally developed BPHC approved curriculum to provide Health communication/ Public Information intervention incorporating Risk Management, the Theory of Reasoned Action and Social Cognitive Theory targeting Deaf, DeafBlind, Hard of hearing, and deafened late in life individuals at high risk with emphasis on MSM, communities of color and partners of high risk individuals.	$42,646

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
Fenway Community Health (Subcontract: MAC)  1340 Boylston Street Boston, MA 02215 Ph.: (617) 267-0900 Fax: (617) 859-1250	Back Bay, Jamaica Plain, Roxbury	Men who have sex with men, bisexuals, having multiple risk factors.	MSM of color in Boston & their sexual partners, male and female transgender individuals.	Collaboration between Fenway and the MAC using the CDC approved Prevention Case Management model and targeting MSM, particularly MSM of color with multiple risk factors as well as Male to Female Transgender individuals. The program adapts the PCM model by adding risk reduction groups, social marketing campaigns, educational forums and internet education and outreach to the already existing Prevention Navigation components of the model. In addition to the above, the program will collaborate with LHI who will offer bilingual English/Spanish support groups for Crystal Meth users.	$193,706
Harbor Health Services, Inc.  398 Neponset Ave. Dorchester, MA 02122 Ph.: (617) 282-3200 Fax: (617) 825-8577	Dorchester	Adolescents and young adults at high risk.	MSM and IDU youth.	Harbor Health uses the Youth Empowerment program Take CHARGE curriculum and the internally developed "And Now What?" and "CREW" curricula to provide Mobile Outreach, Group Level Interventions, Individual Level Interventions and Health Communication/Public Information Intervention services to adolescents and young adults at high risk, including MSM and IDU youth in Dorchester. The project will recruit, hire and train youth to become Peer Youth Leaders who will conduct outreach and presentation activities. .	$84,666

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
La Alianza Hispana 409 Dudley Street Roxbury, MA 02119 Ph.: (617) 427- 7175 Fax: (617) 442- 2259	Roxbury, South Dorchester	Latino adolescents at high risk with multiple risk factors.	DCF &amp; DYS involved youth, substance abusers, chronically truant.	La Alianza Hispana uses the CDC approved Cuidate! curriculum , based on Social Cognitive Theory, the Theory of Reasoned Action and Theory of Planned Behavior to provide Group Level Interventions to Latino adolescents at high risk with multiple risk factors including those that are DCF and DYS involved, those chronically truant and abusing substances in the Roxbury and South Dorchester neighborhoods. Settings include several schools, CBO's, DYS detention facilities and La Alianza Hispana itself. Program modules will be offered in English and Spanish-only sections.	$83,544
Multicultural AIDS Coalition, Inc. (Subcontract: WCAC) 31 Heath Street Boston, MA 02130 Ph.: (617) 442-1622 Fax: (617) 442-6622	South End, Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, Hyde park	Black (African American, Haitian and Sub-Saharan African) women at high risk.	Women of color with multiple risk factors for HIV, STI and viral hepatitis including sex workers.	MAC acts as the lead agency for WCAC using the CDC approved VOICES/VOCES and SISTA curricula to provide Mobile Outreach, Health Communication/ Public Information and Group Level Interventions to Black (African American, Haitian, Sub-Saharan African) Women at high risk of infection who reside in the Roxbury, Mattapan, Dorchester, Jamaica Plain and South End neighborhoods. The program is based on several behavioral change theories, broken down by intervention type: Mobile Outreach will be based on Stages of Change Theory, Motivational Theory &amp; Social Networks Theory; Group Level Interventions will be based on Social Learning Theory, Theory of Reasoned Action and Theory of Gender and Power and HC/PI Interventions will be based on the Diffusion of Innovation theory.	$111,411

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
Multicultural AIDS Coalition, Inc. State of Emergency 31 Heath Street Boston, MA 02130 Ph.: (617) 442-1622 Fax: (617) 442-6622	South End, Roxbury, Dorchester, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, Hyde park	Black residents of Boston at high risk of infection.	Sub-Saharan Africans, Haitians and Caribbeans, Black Women, MSM, IDU and recently released incarcerated individuals	MAC uses Mobile Outreach and Health Communication/Public Information Intervention activities to provide the "Fight the Fear" Structural Intervention in response to the HIV/AIDS State of Emergency in the Black Community for upwards of 20,000 Black residents of Boston with multiple risk factors. The program will conduct High Profile events, HIV 101 workshops and ongoing capacity building to community organizations. In addition to staff, a Community Advisory Board informs the program and Health System Navigators perform outreach.	$98,862
Roxbury Comprehensive Community Health Center, Inc. 435 Warren Street Roxbury, MA 02119 Ph.: (617) 442-7400 Fax: (617) 442-1409	Dorchester, Roxbury	Injection drug users, persons already infected, communities of color.	Sex partners of IDU and those already infected, IDU of color, resident immigrant and refugee communities	Program is based on Harm Reduction Model and Stages of Change theory, incorporating Individual Level Interventions, and Group Level Interventions conducted in clinical settings and community based organizations and Mobile Outreach conducted in drug purchasing and using environments targeting communities of color, particularly African Americans and Latinos with multiple risk factors including IDU and their partners and persons already infected and their partners in Roxbury and Dorchester neighborhoods.	$73,550

Boston Public Health Commission
Community Based Prevention
FY 2010

Organization	Area of Boston	Population	Sub-population	Program Description	Total Funding
Span Inc.  105 Chauncy Street Boston, MA 02119 Ph.: (617) 423 - 0750 Fax: (617) 482 - 2717	Metro Boston	Soon to be released incarcerated males with multiple risk factors.	African American and Latino men at high risk.	Span uses the CDC approved Project START curriculum to provide Individual Level Interventions to incarcerated males, primarily African American and Latino with high risk behaviors who are being released to Boston proper. After enrollment, the intervention consists of two sessions while incarcerated and four sessions after release, all rooted in incremental risk reduction. Span will work at four corrections sites: Suffolk, Coolidge, Brook House, and the Boston State Pre-release center.	$114,870
Whittier Street Health Center Committee, Inc.  1125 Tremont Street Boston, MA 02120 Ph.: (617) 989-3220 Fax: (617) 989-3247	Roxbury,	Adolescents and veterans at risk of infection	Youth and veterans of color, particularly Black and Latinos; resident immigrant and refugee communities.	Whittier St. uses a model based on Social Cognitive Theory, Risk/Harm reduction and Stages of Change theory to provide Mobile Outreach, Group Level Interventions and Structural Interventions for veterans and youth with multiple risk factors, including those who are homeless, IDU and substance abusers and those with behavioral health issues, residing in the Back Bay, Jamaica Plain, Mattapan, North Dorchester and South End neighborhoods. The program will increase access to HIV, STI and hepatitis education materials to the target populations and will promote awareness of HIV counseling/testing and screening, safer sex negotiation skills, refusal skills, regular exchange for clean needles, and consistent condom use &amp; link persons to primary care, behavioral health, substance abuse programs and housing support.	$162,009