

May 20th , 2019

Response to question for Strategic Plan Project Manager Consultant RFP

Question: I have done a lot of related work in public health strategic planning and implementation work in the state public health department and other venues, but I do not PMP certification. Is this an absolute requirement?

BPHC response: Yes, Project Management Professional Certification Credentials is a requirement for this role.